Privacy Policy

2Ems Internet is aware of the importance of keeping your personal information safe. We know that you care about how your personal information is used and shared, and we take your privacy seriously. We understand and recognize that we must maintain and use customer information responsibly. Any information collected on this site will be kept strictly confidential and will not be sold, reused, rented, or disclosed.

Please read the following to learn more about our Privacy Statement. By visiting the <http://2emsinternet.co.uk> (www.2emsinternet.co.uk) website and domain name, or otherwise accessing any other linked pages, features, content, products or application services offered from time to time by 2Ems Internet in connection therewith (collectively, the Site), you acknowledge that you accept the practices and policies outlined in this Privacy Statement.

Personal Information You Provide to Us:

The information we gather from customers enables us to sell our customers products and personalise and improve our services. We collect the following types of information from our customers:

We may receive and store any information you enter on our website or provide to us in any other way. The types of Personal Information collected may include your full name, gender, email address, mailing address, mobile phone number, IP address, browser information, time zone and any other information necessary for us to provide or sell you products and otherwise provide our services. (We do not collect credit card and/or other payment information, username, or password).

You are at liberty not to provide us with certain information, but then you may not be able to take advantage of some of our site features. The Personal Information you provide may be used for such purposes as fulfilling your order, responding to your requests for certain products and services, customizing the advertising and content you see, and communicating with you about specials, sales offers, and new products or services.

Personal Information Collected Automatically:

We receive and store certain types of information whenever you interact with our Site or use our services. 2Ems Internet automatically receives and records information on our server logs from your browser including your IP address, cookie information and the page you requested. Generally, our service automatically collects usage information, such as the numbers and frequency of visitors to our Site and its components, similar to TV ratings that indicate how many people watched a particular show. 2Ems Internet only uses this data for analytical purposes in aggregate form, that is, as a statistical measure, and not in a manner that would identify you personally.

This type of aggregate data enables us to figure out how often customers use parts of the Site or services so that we can make the Site appealing to as many customers as possible and improve those services. As part of this use of information, we may provide aggregate information to our partners about how our customers, collectively, use our Site or services. We share this type of statistical data so that our partners also understand how often people use the Site or services, so that they, too, may provide you with an optimal online experience. Again, 2Ems Internet will never disclose aggregate information to a partner in a manner that would identify you personally.

Email Communications:

We often receive a confirmation when you open an email from 2Ems Internet if your computer supports this type of program. 2Ems Internet uses this confirmation to help make emails more interesting and helpful. When you receive e-mail from 2Ems Internet, you can opt out of receiving further e-mails by emailing us at info@2emsinternet.co.uk

Use of Cookies:

Cookies are alphanumeric identifiers that we transfer to your computer's hard drive through your browser to enable our systems to recognize your browser and tell us how and when pages in our site are visited and by how many people. We use cookies to enhance visitors' experiences, to learn more about their use of the Site and to improve quality. Most browsers have an option for turning off the cookie feature, which will prevent your browser from accepting new cookies, as well as (some browsers may not have this feature) allow you to decide on the acceptance of each new cookie in a variety of ways. We strongly recommend that you leave the cookies activated, however, because cookies enable you to take advantage of some of our Site's most attractive features.

When land on our site a pop up will advise you to accept our cookies and also to learn more about cookies and how they are used.

We also contract with a third-party advertising partner to serve ads on our behalf across the Internet and sometimes on this site. They will collect and use anonymous information about your visits to and interactions with our website through the use of technologies such as cookies to personalize advertisements for goods and services. To learn more, or to opt-out of receiving advertisements tailored to your interests by our third party partners, visit the Network Advertising Initiative at www.networkadvertising.org/choices.

Ads appearing on the Site may be delivered to users by our advertising partners, who may set cookies. These cookies allow the ad server to recognize your computer each time they send you an online advertisement to compile information about you or others who use your computer. This information allows ad networks to, among other things, deliver targeted advertisements that they believe will be of most interest to you. This Privacy Statement covers the use of cookies by 2Ems Internet and does not cover the use of cookies by any advertisers.

Google Analytics:

We use Google Analytics to help us learn about who visits our site and what pages are being looked at.

Information Sharing with Outside Parties:

2Ems Internet will never rent or sell your e-mail address. We do not share credit card information with third parties except for the purpose of processing your order payment and as required by law. However, certain third-party service providers, such as payment gateways and other payment transaction processors, have their own privacy policies in respect to the information we are required to provide to them for your purchase-related transactions. For these providers, we recommend that you read their privacy policies so you can understand the manner in which your personal information will be handled by these providers. In particular, remember that certain providers may be located in or have facilities that are located a different jurisdiction than either you or us. So if you elect to proceed with a transaction that involves the services of a third-party service provider, then your information may become subject to the laws of the jurisdiction(s) in which that service provider or its facilities are located. As an example, if you are located in the USA and your transaction is processed by a payment gateway located in the the UK, then your personal information used in completing that transaction may be subject to disclosure under the legislation of United Kingdom, including.

If for any reason you choose to access a third party website linked to our Site, you do so at your own risk. We are not held responsible for how these outside parties collect, use, protect or disclose the information you provide them. Once you leave our store's website or are redirected to a third-party website or application, you are no longer governed by this Privacy Policy or our website's Terms of Service.

Age Requirement:

2Ems Internet website (and services as offered on the website) is intended for users who are 18 years of age and older. If you are under the age of 18, you are not permitted to submit any personal information to us.

Security:

To protect your personal information, we take reasonable precautions and follow industry best practices to make sure it is not inappropriately lost, misused, accessed, disclosed, altered or destroyed. In the event that you provide us with your credit card information, the information is encrypted using secure socket layer technology (SSL) and stored with a AES-256 encryption. Although no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is 100% secure, we follow all PCI-DSS requirements and implement additional generally accepted industry standards. In addition, we use professionally reasonable efforts to block access to your personal information from 2Ems Internet employees and partners to ensure your personal information is always kept safe.
